ORAL JUDGEMENT

(Per : MR.JUSTICE J.N.BHATT)

Upon matter being called out, learned advocate Mr.Raju for the petitioners, under instructions, stated before us that in view of the long time lapse between the institution of the petition and the hearing today, there may be change of guards, status and factual scenario in the Panchayat concerned. The petitioners would like to make a representation for sympathetic consideration since they are in minority and therefore, permission is sought to withdraw the petition at this stage. However, he has stated that they will make representation within a period of one and-a-half months and till then status quo may be permitted to be maintained.

In view of the aforesaid statement, permitted to withdraw. Accordingly, this petition shall stand disposed of as withdrawn. The interim order shall continue for a period of 45 (forty-five) days from today, during which period, the petitioners can make representation to the authority concerned. Rule discharged.
